

BISHOP HAY's new Edition of the Rev. ALBAN BUTLER's LIVES of the SAINTS.

Proposals for publishing by Subscription a new edition of the Lives of the Primitive Fathers, Martyrs, and other principal Saints: compiled from original Monuments and other authentic Records: illustrated with the Remarks of judicious modern Critics and Historians. By the Rev. Alban Butler.

This edition of Mr. Butler's Lives of the Saints, is to be printed under the inspection and superintendence of the Right Rev. Dr. George Hay, and the Rev. Mr. Cameron, of Edinburgh, with the patronage of all the Roman Catholic Prelates and Clergy of England, Scotland, and Ireland, and with the approbation of the author's nephew, (Counsellor Butler, his sole personal representative, and legatee of his writings.—The delay in the publication of the above work must be accounted for as a necessary measure, for procuring the concurrence of the neighbouring island, of America, the West and East Indies, and more particularly for procuring various improvements, which had, after the first publication of the Proposals, been discovered to be in the possession of some of the author's learned friends.

CONDITIONS.

I. That this work shall be published in forty-two weekly numbers, (to be paid on delivery,) on an elegant new type, and good demy paper, octavo, at One Shilling each number. Also on superfine wove demy at One Shilling and Threepence each number.—II. Those who prefer having the work in volumes, one shall be delivered monthly, in boards, at 4s. the common, and 4s. 9d. the fine paper, payable on delivery.—III. Those who subscribe for the whole work in sheets, the price shall be Two Pounds sterling the common, and Two Pounds Eight Shillings the fine paper.—IV. The Subscription shall close on the first number of the work going to press, which is intended for the first of March, 1798, after which each copy will be advanced one-third to the non-subscribers—a distinction which is absolutely necessary to ascertain the support which the expence of so great an undertaking requires.—V. That the work shall be ornamented with a fine Head of the Author, and other beautiful engravings, if the Subscription is answerable to the expence attending them.—VI. The names of the subscribers shall be given with the last volume.—VII. The above work to be printed from the latest and most correct editions of Butler's Lives of the Saints, collated with the first English, and the French editions; with several additions, amendments, corrections, and proper indexes, with reference to the ages and other circumstances of history, and will, when finished, be comprised in twelve handsome Octavo Volumes, each volume containing the Lives of the Saints for one month.—No money being required till the numbers or volumes are delivered, the publishers earnestly intreat those who intend to patronize this work, to give in their names as speedily as possible to their booksellers, that the impression may be ascertained; they are also requested to express particularly the quality of paper, and mode of delivery, of their copies.

Subscriptions received by J. P. Coghlan, No. 37, Duke-street, Grosvenor-square, London; J. Moir, Paterfon's Court, Edinburgh; F. Coates, Newcastle, Northumberland; R. Crofs, and P. Wogan, Dublin; by P. Keating, Warwick-street, Golden-square; E. Booker, New Bond-street; Smart and Co. Reading, Berks; Gamage, Worcester; Sharrock, Preston; Wilson, Ecclestone, Lancashire; Todd and Tellyman, York; E. and D. Thomas, Monmouth; and all the booksellers of Great Britain and Ireland, and the sacristus of the public chapels.

F. Coates, of Newcastle, in Northumberland, begs leave to acquaint those gentlemen who favour him with their orders for the Saints Lives, that he is united in the edition which the Right Rev. Bishop Hay superintends, and will be published by F. Coates, R. Crofs, J. P. Coghlan, and J. Moir, and that all orders sent to him will be punctually and thankfully complied with, and forwarded as soon as the numbers are printed.

L O N D O N.

THE LAXATIVE SULPHURATED PILL;

PRICE TWO SHILLINGS and EIGHT PENCE a BOX, containing FIFTY PILLS, each one being a sufficient Dose for most Constitutions.

WHICH has been of such acknowledged Benefit to Mankind, for these 20 years past, that without once advertising, the Sale has so rapidly increased, not only in this but Foreign Countries, as to encourage the Continuance of them; and that from the same charitable Motive, which first induced the Proprietor to make them public, that the Poor might have a cheap and safe Medicine, for whatever may afflict the Head, Bowels, or Stomach; such as, all Windy Complaints, Head-achs, Indigestions, Vertigoes, Palsies, Gripes, Scurvy, Rheumatism, Gout, Disorders to which Seamen, Painters, Plumbers, and Manufacturers, who follow dangerous and unwholesome Businesses, are liable; and are peculiarly serviceable in the Complaints to which Women are generally subject.

THE JESUITS BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

DIRECTIONS FOR THE USE.

Give a new-born infant 6 or 8 drops in a tea-spoonful of water; and, if you find not the relief expected within half an hour, increase the number of drops, but not the quantity of water, and so on every half hour, till the child breaks wind. The same method is to be made use of when an upgrown person takes them, only that the quantity to be taken by them is, a tea-spoonful of the Cordial to double that quantity of water.

Where may be had,
